About Renfrew Group

Renfrew Group is a local ensemble which plays various styles of straight ahead jazz. Its seriousness in pursuing high standards in the sophisticated and intricate artistry of jazz can be seen in its lineup: it consists solely of music school graduates from the Hong Kong Baptist University Music Department and Berklee College of Music (Boston, US), the latter also schooled such distinguished local musicians as Joseph Koo SBS (顧嘉輝), Ted Lo, Chan Fai Young (陳輝陽) and Ronald Ng (伍樂城).

Renfrew Group was first founded in 2005 and was immediately invited to perform as the opening act of the 1st Hong Kong Jazz Festival organized by the Hong Kong Jazz Association. Since its foundation, Renfrew Group and its members has played for not only the general public in hotels, functions, weddings, malls and concert halls, but also acute listeners of fine jazz at major jazz venues including the Fringe Club, Blue Door jazz club, the Foreign Correspondents' Club, and the newly emerged and widely popular live music host Backstage Restaurant, and has continuously been widely acclaimed.

To know more about the group and its members, you can either log on to www.renfrewgroup.org, or www.myspace.com/renfrewgroup.
